Labelexpo 2011

The world's largest label event Labelexpo Europe will take place from 28th of September till 1st of October at the Brussels Expo, with two new major feature areas in this year's show.

First introduced at last year's Labelexpo Americas, the popular Digital Print Workshops at which three printing technologies (dry toner, liquid toner and inkjet) will be compared against each other during live machine demonstrations run by an independent moderator. Visitors will see the different companies printing the same job on the same material – a food, pharmaceutical or personal label, and the same, will have the opportunity to print a label of their choice.

And for the first time at any Labelexpo show, there will also be a new feature dedicated to package printing. The Package Printing Zone will consist of seminar sessions and working machinery demonstrations, introducing label printers to opportunities in short-run package printing (including flexible packaging, folding cartons, pouches and sachets).

DuPont - Hall 11, Stand #Q25 DuPont continues to innovate and advance flexo enabling users to achieve gravure-like quality, precise registration and highest speed to market through their high-level solutions: DuPont Cyrel round and Cyrel FAST round.
